

Lee-Fendall House
MUSEUM AND GARDEN

Program Reservation

The Lee-Fendall House is an historic building on the National Register of Historic Places. It is owned and operated by the Virginia Trust for Historic Preservation (VTHP).

Introduction

Whereas, the VTHP is a 501(c)(3) tax exempt charitable organization and operates the Lee-Fendall House as a museum open to the general public, and whereas, the contracting party wishes to so use the Lee-Fendall House, now therefore, the parties intending to be so bound hereby agree as follows.

The contracting party wishes to make a reservation for a Lee-Fendall House program on the date set forth below and in the attached Event Information form (incorporated by reference herein). The contracting party is understood to have discussed the nature and content of the program with a representative of Lee-fendall House prior to signing and agreed to the same. At all events, the Lee-Fendall House will appoint a representative to open and close the building, and be present and in charge during the function.

Program Fees

This agreement is made this _____ by and between the VTHP/The Lee-Fendall House and _____ (“contracting party”) for the program entitled _____ on _____ from the hours of _____ to _____.

The total program fee for the contracting party is _____

A reservation deposit equal to 25% of the total program charge is due upon signing this program reservation or the contract will automatically become null and void. The balance of the total program fee is due and payable two weeks prior to the program date. If this reservation is signed less than four weeks prior to the event date, full payment of the total rental charge is due at the signing of this reservation.

Should the contracting party cancel the program reservation; the program fee and deposit will be returned if the Lee-Fendall House is given at least 6 months prior written notice. If written notice of cancellation is given between 6 and 2 months prior, the program fee and deposit will be returned, minus a 10% processing fee. If written notice of cancellation is given between 2 months and 2 weeks prior, the program fee and deposit will be returned, minus a 25% processing fee. No refund of the deposit fee will be given if the program reservation is canceled within 1 week of the program date. The museum will make a good faith effort to reschedule the program with the contracting party.

Force Majeure Conditions

The contracting party agrees that VTHP, the Lee-Fendall House, any affiliated organizations and their officers, directors, members, employees, agents, and representatives shall not be liable for losses, damages (including attorney’s fees, court costs, and consequential damages), detention, delay or failure to perform in whole or in part resulting from causes beyond its control, including but not limited to acts of God, acts or omissions, fires, weather conditions, power failures, strikes, riots, embargos, delays in transportation, inability to obtain supplies or requirements, or regulations of the United States government or any other civil or military authority (to include any local legislation regarding liquor license requirements). Delays or non-performance excused by this provision shall not excuse payment of any amount due hereunder owed at the time of the occurrence. If an event is cancelled in whole or in part because of a force majeure condition, a complete or partial refund of monies will be made to the contracting party no later than thirty days after the date of the event.

Photographs

The Virginia Trust for Historic Preservation shall have the right to take photographs at the event for the purpose of advertising the Lee-Fendall House. All rights to, and the use of these images shall belong to the VTHP.

Additional Terms

This contract shall be governed and constructed in accordance with the laws of the Commonwealth of Virginia. This contract may not be assigned in whole or in part by the contracting party except with prior written approval by the Lee-Fendall House. This contract and its attachments constitute the entire understanding between the parties. This contract may only be amended in writing signed by both parties.
